insights from mom to mom

I'm giving her the Happy Meal® she loves and giving back.

It's so great that something as enjoyable as a trip to McDonald's can help families who need it most. Every Happy Meal we get helps support over 6,000 families that benefit from the Ronald McDonald House® Program every night. And the only thing better than spending time together is helping families of hospitalized children do the same.

Each Happy Meal helps families find hope and a home away from home.
